We desire it to be distinctly understood that we have no personal feelings against Mr. Marsh, or any member of his Government. In most places such a statement from a public newspaper would be quite honesty has so few adherents that chery partisanship, or personal motives, it is requisite to speak plainly to prevent backbiting and misunderstanding. Our opposition has always been, and always will be directed against measures, not against individuals, and only on public grounds. A few days ago we announced that the agent of CHIARINI'S Circus had obtained the permission of the Hongkong Cricket Club authorities to creet their tents, under certain clearly defined conditions, on that piece of ground situated to the eastward of the City Hall, and popularly, although erroneously it seems, known as the Cricket Ground. Our information was strictly accurate, and we are in a position to state that the announcement gave general satisfaction to the community. It was generally, and very properly felt that a public entertainment of the class of Chiarint's Circus and Menagerie, was essentially a medium for public recreation and instruction which was entitled, in the interests of the general public, to all the privileges which the Colony could conveniently grant, in order to ensure its visit to Hongkong proving a financial success. Affording a study of natural history quite unknown to this Colony, the merits of the entertainment, and the convenience of the public surely pointed out the Public Recreation Ground, centrally situated, and at present used for no other purpose, as the proper place for Mr. Chiarist to pitch his tents. It was therefore with some surprise that we learned, a day or two after making the above announcement, that although the Cricket Club authorities, who, rent the ground, and are therefore entitled to some consideration in the matter, had lagreed to the proposals of Chiarini's Agent, His Excellency the Administrator had declined to ratify the arrangement. and refused point blank to permit the circus to be crected, for reasons, which will not for a single moment bear independent scrutiny; in fact, Mr. 'Marsh's extraordinary action can only be described as a factious opposition to the wishes and convenience of the public, based on no reason-The Hongkong Welegraph able grounds, and apparently enforced to show that the fussy gentleman, who as present directs our political destinies, is

A STEAMER whose name will live in the history of Japan, says the Hiogo News, has just been discarded by the China Merchants' Company The Pembroke, or the Tungling as her present owners call her, was fired upon by the batteries at Shimonoseki, and thus interested the United States of America in the dispute which led the bombardment there.

OUR Zoological Special happening to be ou eastward yesterday, thought he would look in upon his old friend the tiger, about which he wrote such a glowing panegyric in a recent issue. After duly "chin-chinning" his tigership, he thought he might take the liberty of bringing his hide, but the ungrateful brute, with a movement that need not be described, suffice it to say that glass case made in which to preserve the umbrella as a monument of tigerish ingratitude. It is written "Put not your faith in princes." Our not your faith in tigers," even although you have leading journal.

THE "Dreaming" anecdote about the late Lord Wilton is sure to be much quoted now that his lordship is dead. The facts of the case are as follows :-- The late Earl had a colt entered for the Chesterfield Cup at the Goodwood meeting some years ago. "The colt had previously always run as by Cotherstone from Duchess of Lorraine, and Lord Wilton had not troubled himself about the fancy of the dreamer, adopted the name. field very cleverly,"

First Street, near the Civil Hospital, one man dying soon afterwards from the effects of kicks he received in the abdominal region. The body was sent to the Civil Hospital, and an inquest was to be held this afternoon. Two coolies were charged at the Police Court this morning with having with another not in custody, caused the the kind, it would be premature to construe death of the man. Inspector Thomson, in charge of the case, applied for a remand as an inquest was to be held. The case was accordingly remanded till the 22nd instant. We hear the man not in custody is the one who actually kicked the deceased to death.

CAITAIN H. Evers of the steamer Vorwaerts. who goes home by the French mail was, when last in Touron, presented by the Chinese shippers there with a large square silk flag bearing the following insc; ption in Chinese; "we love you warmly and fervently, better than the sun in winter." From the above it is pretty evident that Captain Evers has not been doing a stroke of house and land brokering with his hiends, the Chinese, otherwise, we are rather afraid that, instead of being presented with a silk flag bearing tokens of love and friendship, on his departure, a stone flag would have done duty, and anathemas have taken the place of words of love.

EDWARD SMITH, 26, of England, a seaman of the American harque J. A. Balmin was charged this morning before Captain Thomsett' with creating a disturbance at Gibb's What? yesterday. Constable Dick found him in an uproarious condition, shouting and swearing, being about half seas over. Smith declined to take the Constable's well meant advice to keep quiet, so Dick walked him off to durance vile as our friend Joe Maxwell would say. The Magistrate fined Edward 50 cents, with the alternative of one day's seclusion from the society of his friends and companions.-George Thomson, a New Caledonian, a seaman belonging to the American schooner Spartan, received a like sentence for drunkenness, coupled with incapacity, his legs having refused to bear the extra weight of the liquor poured in.

A PLAYFUL goat whilst performing one of th many antics for which that animal is justly famous, happened to break a plate belonging to a cook who was washing clothes on the hillside yesterday. The culinary adept becoming greatly incensed on viewing his shattered crockery, savagely beat the unlucky quadruped, with the result that it died an hour afterwards. The owner cruelty by fining him $5 or 14 days' imprisonment, a further 14 days incarceration to be undergone by the goat slayer unless he paid the owner six Mexicans, to compensate him for the loss of the dear departed, whose milk he will no more have an opportunity of freely diluting with water from the purling brook lest it might prove too strong for the weak stomachs of foreigners.

SELDEN in his "Table Talk" says :- "Equity is a roguish thing; for law we have a measure, know wifat to thust to fequity is according to the conscience of him that is Chancellor, and as that umbrella in gentle contact with the animal's is larger or narrower, so is equity. Tis all one as if they should make the standard for the measure we call a foot a Chancellor's foot; what an uncertain measure would this be! One Chanbear upon the unlucky umbrella with a result cellor has a long foot, another a short foot, a third an indifferent foot. Tis the same our Special finds himself two Mexicans and a the Chancellor's conscience." We commend a half out of pocket by it. He intends having a study of this practical criticism on the decision of Chief Justice Phillippo in Dorabjee Nowrajee v. Wong Tsuk Lum and Sin Sin, commented on in our leader of last Friday, to the careful consideration of Mr. Sin Sin. We are anxiously waiting. for something to transpire which will really shock the elastic conscience of the Hongkong Supreme Court.

A CONSIDERABLE sensation, says the Japan Mail, has been produced in Australian medical circles by the recent appearance in the drug market of a new narcotic, hailing from Queensland, and at present only known to the trade by its quaint name of "pitchery-bidge: 7." A ROW occurred last night among some coolies in | WE (Hiogo News) understand the Japanese. Government have offered to defray all expenses incurred in repairing the damage done to the U.S.S. Alert through the recent collision between the Jingei-kan and that vessel. The offer has, we believe, been declined, and as the Japanese are proverbially liberal in matters of their willingness to make compensation into an acknowledgment of error in the navigation of their vessel. The official inquiry will alone decide that question.

> THE Paris Mémorial Diplomatique publishes intelligence, stating that it is not a simple meeting between the Emperors of Austria and Russia which is projected, but an interview at which the Emperor of Germany and the Kings of Italy, ANOTHER wonderful specimen of the cactus is Roumania, and Servia would be present, and which be held with the object of assuring the maintenance of peace in Europe. " Nevertheless," continues the Mimorial Diplomatique, " such a proposal would necessitate much negotiation," and could only be carried out after frank and clear explanations have been given to the British and French Governments, whose susceptibilities would have to be seriously taken into account.

A VERY fine screw steamer, one of the largest hitherto built here, was recently launched from the Government Establishment at Shinden. This vessel is about 156 feet in length, and is intended for the passenger and cargo coast trade. Her footway by any one passing the barracks. accommodation for passengers appears very complete, the saloons and cabins being nicely fitted up, and judging from the vessel's appearance sho will carry a large cargo on a light draught of water, an indispensable requisite for trading up rivers like those to Osaka. This steamer is supplied with compound surface condensing engines of the newest and most approved pattern (which were also made at the same establishment) working with steam at high pressure and giving very economical results as regards consumption of coal. A trial trip the day before yesterday proved remarkably satisfactory, the vessel attaining speed of 13½ knots an hour, which is, we are in for ned, without precedent in any steamer hitherto built in Japan. Indeed the complete success the vessel should be matter for congratulation on the part of the Government, as it shows the Hiogo Engineering Works are under satisfactory management.—Hiogo News.

Cap- from that lady's writing desk, was up again this out his knowledge, and he knew nothing of it tain Thomsett marked his sense of the cook's morning at the Police Court. Sergeant Fisher said he had all the numerous native staff of the Mail marshalled in single file before him, but the employé from whom defendant said he had received the five dollars which he offered to Fisher to quadrate the matter, was not amongst them. individual of the same name, however, had been in the establishment six weeks since, but his brought him his discharge, who replied in the present whereabouts could not be discovered. negative, and told him he would get his discharge Defendant's antecedents are of a rather shady character, Mr. Hayward the acting Superintendent of the Gaol, in whose employment he had been, having been obliged to discharge him on account of the mysterious disappearance of a number of little things, that tender-hearted official not wishing to keep him on until he had actually qualified himself for a distinguished post in the establishment, without pay. Notwithstanding Mr. Hayward's humane efforts to be rid for good of the fellow, Mr. Wodehouse sent the defendant for four months to his safe keeping, with directions that the time was to be agreeably passed in the interesting occupations of shot drill and oakum picking.

> ABOUT 7 a.m., on the 12th instant, as that indesatigable officer Sergeant Campbell was doing a stroll along the praya, curiosity, or something else, took him on board the steam-launch Fie Yune which was lying alongside the wharf, laden with passengers, about thirty in number. Wishing, with that politeness inbred (7) in the men who wear the uniform of the Hongkong Police force, to pay his respects to the commander of the Fie l'une, Sergeant Campbell made enquiries for the captain who was not to be found. This was really disappointing to Campbell, so he took a look round the craft and found something which rather startled his by no means weak nerves. viz.,-the steam guage Indicating a pressure of goths, of steam. With commendable despatch the Sergeant cleared the craft of the passengers, eased the safety valve, and stood alone on the deck, like Casabianca's son, waiting for something to turn up, which something soon appeared in the shape of the gigantic form of Carl Wassenius, the engineer of the Government Fire Brigade and Inspector of wheelbarrows, we mean rickshas. Wassenius went on board, journoyed down to the engine room to see what water was on, and found the glass half full; looking further round, in the hold, he found the engineer asleep in his bunk, and promptly hauled him out. On going into the stokehole Wassenius found a good fire in the sit on the royal yard until the chief mate chose quiries of the engineer as to what his full driving power was, it was found that, when working at full speed, the indicator would denote 70lbs. some 20lbs. less than the indicator shewed when the launch was lying quietly along side the wharf, and the engines at rest. It makes one feel a trifle nervous to think of such things being possible, under our very noses. Had the poor wretches of passengers and they had no complaint to make against been blown to atoms, or kingdom come, there would have been endless enquiries as to the Henderson. Defendant got cut once on the cause, and effect, of the catastrophe, and much hand for refusing to fill the water tanks any valuable time would have been taken up in the longer. It has added somewhere about 12 feet to its height within a period of 12 days, a length of ten feet, six and a half inches being comprised between the last new leaf parted from the parent stem and the top of the stem. THE remanded case in which an unemployed scaman named George Cannon was charged with being drunk and begging, and being a rogue and vagabond, was on again this morning at the Police Cour .. This is the man whom Mr. H. W. Davis, of the firm of Linstead and Davis, had to send for a constable on the 5th inst. to arrest, as he refused to leave that gentleman's office, where he went to beg .- Inspector Fleming made enquiries about him at the U.S. Consulate, and was told he was on the books of the Consulate as having arrived by the American ship Twilight on the 27th September last. He received his discharge on the 4th October, and the papers were then handed to him. The Inspector said discharge papers are never in any case kept at the Consulate.—On the 8th instant defendant said he was arrested on the 4th October for making a false report about the Bolton Abbey. The case was remanded till 5th October, and he was meanwhile detained in gaol. until some days after he had been in gaol when one of his shipmates told him he had been paidoff. He heard nothing more until the 12th December, when the Captain brought the money due to him, $7.75, to the gaol. The money was left with Mr. Hayward, who gave it to him when leaving the gaol. He asked the Captain if he had at the Consul's office when he left the gaol. He went to the Consulate after he came out of gaol and asked for his discharge. He saw the American Consul, who asked him what ship he belonged to. He answered the Twilight. The Consul told him he would not give him his discharge, and sent him away. After that he had to go to the Civil Hospital, where he was seven weeks, coming out on the 4th March. After he had been in hospital about a month he went to the Consul again and asked for his discharge: The Consul said "I must see the captain first." The ship was then in harbour. He went back to hospital, and since then had heard nothing more about it. When his wages were paid he raised an objection to a stoppage of $12 on account of cargo being discharged during his absence. As a matter of fact, foreign scamen are not employed in the discharge of cargo from American ships in Hongkong harbour, but only Chinese, and therefore he did not consider the stoppage'a fair one. He spoke to the Harbour Master about it, but he said he could not do anything, as it was an American ship. Mr. Hayward and Inspector Staunton were present when he complained of the stoppage to the captain. He was at first going to refuse to sign the receipt for $7.50, but the captain told him that if he did not sign he could charge him another dollar, He therefore thought it better to sign. The rest of his account was all right. If consideration is shown to him now, he undertakes to get out of Hongkong in a week's time. The reason he made the false statement about the Bolton Abbey was because he wanted to get clear of the Twilight, where he was shamefully treated, and was afraid of doing something desperate. He shipped on board the Twilight in Newcastle, Australia, and came in her to Hongkong. He was only brought as far as Hongkong. He was illtreated in various ways as were also the other men, They had, for instance, to go over the side in the night and scrape the chain plates, or elso fill a tank with salt water and let it run out again, or he sent up aloft and made to The chief mate used to make them do things such as painting, and then make them wipe it all out again. The punishments were simply to please himself. They always did their necessary work, and there was no occasion to punish them. It was pure caprice on the part of the chief mate. The Captain had no part in it, him. The chief mate's name was George

JAPAN.

We read in native papers that it has been found that a hot spring in the precincts of the Iwoji temple, situated on Idzuyama (Idzu pro-vince) emits gold dust mixed with the sand ejected. Specimens have been forwarded to the Home Department.

General Torio Koyata, who has been in retirement for some time, and as to whose future career various rumours have been circulated, was received in audience by the Emperor on the 21st instant, and appointed President of the Board of Statistics in the Privy Council.

The Jiji Shimpo now asserts that, as was previously reported, His Imperial Highness Prince Arisugawa, Second Minister of State, will shortly be despatched to Russia to attend the Czar's coronation, and that Mr. Hayashi, one of the Chief Secretaries of the Public Works Department, has already been appointed to accompany him.

The Hochi Shimbun publishes a despatch that, vexed by the oppression of their landlords, more than one thousand cottiers in Tokumaru and the vicinity in Inaba province, assembled in a temple on the 12th instant, intending to march upon and destroy the farmers' houses; but that a police force, promptly despatched to the spot, prevented the outbreak of disturbance.

The Nichi Nichi Shimbun contains the two following telegrams, dated Nagasaki the 24th instant :-

Five Japanese residents of Gensanshin have been attacked by Coreans. Of these, Hasumoto, a pupil of the Hongwanji, was killed, and two others are dangerously wounded.

On the 31st ultimo five men, named Hasumoto, Tani, Kodama (of the Okura-gumi) Obuchi (of the Mitsu Bishi Company) and Hamate were attacked at An-pen by Coreans, Hasumoto was at once killed, and Obuchi and Kodama received dangerous wounds. The others, Tani and Hamate escaped safe.

The Nichi Nichi Shimbun publishes a telegram from its Kioto correspondent to the effect that at 10 p.m. on the 23rd instant the convicts in the jail there mutinied, set fire to the place, and effected their escape.

Chasing at the non-fulfilment of its erst prediction that the tramway from Shimbashi to Uyeno would be completed before the full spring blooming of the cherry flowers, now, alas, falling like the Hochi Shimbun, probably jesting with sad Is art, says that the construction is postponed upd a measure for the reconstruction of roads, at present under the consideration of the Tokiyo Fu assembly, shall be approved. It is mentioned that the Chinese Minister, in honour of his new appointment, has invited the Ministers of State, Privy Councilors, and foreign Representatives to a grand banquet on the 2nd proximo.

A native paper says that Bin Sho Moku, a nephew of the Queen of Corea, who came to Japan last year and holds progressive opinions, has been urging upon his Government to open Corea to foreign intercourse, but that, owing to } the obstinately conservative ideas still prevalent in the Soul Cabinet, he has been unsuccessful.

The Mainichi Shimbun says that the ironclad Adsuma Kan is now so old, her annour so impaired, and her hull itself so rotten, that to repair her would require an outlay of at least 100,000 yen; and that even then she could not last many years. It has therefore been decided to make only the repairs imperatively necessary, and to convert her into a floating fort.

We are informed that shortly after the arrival of the S. S. Sunda from Hongkong, the customs officials, whose suspicions had been aroused, stopped some of the dirty linen landed by the washermen from the vessel in the usual routine, and discovered that it had been made the cleak for smuggling opium. The indiscretion of some one or other led to the prime mover getting wind of this; or if not the prime mover, at any rate one of the saloon boys who had been several years in the company's employ has deserted, and his whereabouts is not yet ascertained. He may be now some miles on his way back to the Flowery Land rejoicing in his own immunity and the success of past ventures, as boldly and more successfully effected.

Native papers contain the following telegrams respecting the reported disturbance in Corea, of which we published news on Saturday last :-The Mitsu Bishi Company have received from the Tsuruga Maru, which left Gensanshin, Corea, on the 17th instant the following telegram dated Nagasaki the 20th instant :- Obuchi Yoshinori an employe of the company, at Gensanshin, has been beaten near that place and severely but not mortally wounded. A priest of the Hongwanji has been killed and a member of the Okuraguini seriously injured. Great excitement prevails in the settlement, but matters are not so serious as to cause a rupture between Japan and Corea. The Mainichi Shimbun notes that no date is given as to when the riot occurred, but that it must evidently have been before the 17th instant, on which day the Tsuruga Maru left.

Hongkong, Monday, May 15, 1882.

Whar a wonderful change has come over the spirit of our enterprising local contemto the correct cause, and can hardly be sanction; but he was distinctly led to unsaid to have excited much surprise. We derstand that he need not trouble himself, have hitherto purposely refrained from as under no circumstances would the sanccriticising any of the acts of the present tion of the Administrator be greated. administration, wishing to give our con-on the part of Mr. Marsh to infringe on public rights and privileges, and disregard public interests and convenience.

We desire it to be distinctly understood that we have no personal feelings against Mr. MARSH, or any member of his Government. In most places such a statement from a public newspaper would be quite unnecessary; in Hongkong where political honesty has so few adherents that every expression of opinion is attributed to partisanship, or personal motives, it is requisité to'speak plainly to prevent backbiting and misunderstanding. Our opposition has, always been, and always will be directed against measures, not against individuals, and only on public grounds.

A few days ago we announced that the agent of CHLARINI'S Circus had obtained the permission of the Hongkong Cricket Club authorities to erect their tents, under certain clearly defined conditions, on that piece of ground situated to the eastward of the City Hall, and popularly, although erroneously it seems, known as the Cricket Ground. Our information was strictly accurate, and we are in a position to state that the announcement gave general satisfaction to the community. It was generally, and very properly felt that a public entertainment of the class of CHIARINI's Circus and Menagerie, was essentially a medium for public recreation and instruction which was entitled, in the interests of the general public, to all the privileges which the Colony could conveniently grant, in order to ensure its visit to Hongkong proving a financial success. Affording a study of natural history quite unknown to this Colony, the merits of the entertainment, and the convenience of the public surely pointed out the Public Recreation Ground, centrally situated, and at present used for no other purpose, as the proper place for Mr. CHARINI to pitch his tents. 'It was therefore with some surprise that we learned, a day or two after making the above announcement, that although the Cricket Club authorities, who rent the ground, and are therefore entitled to some consideration in the matter, had agreed to the proposals of Chiarini's Agent. His Excellency the Administrator had declined to ratify the arrangement. and refused point blank to permit the circus to be erected, for reasons, which will not for a single moment bear independent scrutiny; in fact. Mr. Marsh's extraordinary action can only be described as a factious opposition to the wishes and convenience of the public, based on no reason able grounds, and apparently enforced to show that the fussy gentleman, who a present directs our "political destinies, is clothed with a little brief authority.

The facts of the case are as by the recent appearance in the drug market of a Chesterfield Cup at the Goodwood meeting some present only known to the trade by its quaint years ago. "The colt had previously always name of "pitchery-bidgery." It is indigenous to run as by Cotherstone from Duchess of Lorraine, and Lord Wilton had not troubled himself about giving him a name. Shortly before the race, however, he received a letter from Lord Chesterfield, enclosing him one which he himself had got from a gentleman, stating that he had dreamed most distinctly a horse named Pumicestone had won the Chesterfield Cup at Goodwood, and as he could not see one of that name in the entry, chewing a small plug of this substance, relief he concluded it must be Lord Wilton's animal that had not been named. The colt being got by Cotherstone, he did not consider Pumicestone altogether inappropriate, and, willing to humour the fancy of the dreamer, adopted the name. The vision was realised, for, without being quoted in the market, he beat Vanderdecken and a large field very cleverly."

A ROW occurred last night among some coolies in First Street, near the Civil Hospital, one man dying soon afterwards from the effects of kicks he received in the abdominal region. The body was sent to the Civil Hospital, and an inquest was to be held this afternoon. Two coolies were charged at the Police Court this morning with having with another not in custody, caused the death of the man. Inspector Thomson, in charge of the case, applied for a remand as an inquest manded till the 22nd instant. We hear the man not in custody is the one who actually kicked the deceased to death.

CALIAIN H. Evers of the steamer Vorwaerts, who goes home by the French mail was, when last in Touron, presented by the Chinese shippers there with a large square silk flag bearing the following inscription in Chinese; "we love you warmly and servently, better than the sun in winter." From the above it is pretty evident that Captain Evers has not been doing a stroke of house and land brokering with his friends, the Chinese, otherwise, we are rather afraid that, instead of being presented with a silk flag bearing tokens of love and friendship, on his departure, a stone flag would have done duty, and anathemas have taken the place of words of love.

EDWARD SMITH, 26, of England, a seaman of the American barque J. A. Balmin was charged this morning before Captain Thomsett with creating a disturbance at Gibb's What yesterday. Constable Dick found him in an uproarious condition, shouting and swearing, being about half seas over. Smith declined to take the Constable's well meant advice to keep quiet, so Dick walked him off to durance vile as our friend Joe Maxwell would say. The Magistrate fined Edward 50 cents, with the alternative of one day's seclusion from the society of his friends and, companions.-George Thomson, a New Caledonian, a seaman belonging to the American schooner Spartan, received a like sentence for drunkenness, coupled with incapacity, his legs having refused to bear the extra weight of the liquor poured in.

A PLAYFUL goat whilst performing one of the many antics for which that animal is justly famous, happened to break a plate belonging to a cook who was washing clothes on the hillside yesterday. The culinary adept becoming greatly, incensed on viewing his shattered crockery, savagely beat the unlucky quad: uped, with the result that it died an hour afterwards. The owner appraised the value of the deceased at $6. Captain Thomsett marked his sense of the cookle cruelty by fining him $5 or 14 days' imprisonment, a further 14 days incarceration to be undergone by the goat slayer unless he paid the owner six Mexicans, to compensate him for the loss of the dear departed, whose milk he will no more have an opportunity of freely diluting with water from the purling brook lest it might prove too strong for the weak stomachs of foreigners.

A CONSIDERABLE sensation, says the Japan Mail, has been produced in Australian medical circles northern Australia-a sort of stunted shrub, some three to four inches in height when full grown, and bearing blossoms of a waxy texture, white in color, and flecked with pink spots. The flowers are picked in the month of August, dried, packed tightly in canvas bags, and then subjected to a high degree of pressure, which imparts to them the consistency of cake tobacco. WE (Hiogo News) understand the Japanese Government have offered to defray all expenses incurred in repairing the damage done to the U.S.S. Alert through the recent collision between the Jingei-kan and that vessel. The offer has, we believe, been declined, and as the Japanese are proverbially liberal in matters of the kind, it would be premature to construe their willingness to make compensation into an acknowledgment of error in the navigation of their vessel. The official inquiry will alone decide that question.

THE Paris Memorial Diplomatique publishes intelligence, stating that it is not a simple meeting between the Emperors of Austria and Russia which is projected, but an interview at which the Emperor of Germany and the Kings of Italy, Roumania, and Servia would be present, and which be held with the object of assuring the lery Barracks, near the nullah. Until a short maintenance of peace in Europe. " Nevertheless," continues the Memorial Diplomatique, "such a proposal would necessitate much negotiation," and could only be carried out after frank and clear explanations have been given to the British and French Governments, whose susceptibilities would have to be seriously taken into account.

A VERY fine screw steamer, one of the largest hitherto built here, was recently launched from leaf parted from the parent stem and the top of the Government Establishment at Shinden. This | the stem. This is its first year of visiting cloudvessel is about 150 feet in length, and is intended for the passenger and cargo coast trade. Her accommodation for passengers appears very complete, the saloons and cabins being nicely fitted up, and judging from the vessel's appearance she will carry a large cargo on a light draught of water, an indispensable requisite for trading up rivers like those to Osaka. This steamer is supplied with compound surface condensing engines of the newest and most approved pattern (which were also made at the same establishment) working with steam at high pressure and giving very economical results as regards consumption coal. A trial trip the day before yesterday proved remarkably satisfactory, the vessel attaining a speed of 131 knots an hour, which is, we are infor ned, without precedent in any steamer hitherto built in Japan. Indeed the complete success the vessel should be matter for congratulation on the part of the Government, as it shows the Hiogo Engineering Works are under satisfactory management. - Hiogo News.

Rose Borlase's house boy, who was charged on Saturday with abstracting a five dollar note from that lady's writing desk, was up again this morning at the Police Court. Sergeant Fisher said he had all the numerous native staff of the Mail marshalled in single file before him, but the employe from whom defendant said he had received the five dollars which he offered to Fisher to quadrate the matter, was not amongst them. An individual of the same name, however, had been. in the establishment six weeks since, but his present whereabouts could, not be discovered. Desendant's antecedents are of a rather shady character, Mr. Hayward the acting Superintendent of the Gaol, in whose employment he had been, having been obliged to discharge him on account of the mysterious disappearance of a number of little things, that tender-hearted official not wishing to keep him on until he had actually qualified himself for a distinguished post in the establishment, without pay. Notwithstanding Mr. Hayward's humane efforts to be rid for good of the fellow, Mr. Wodehouse sent the defendant for four months to his safe keeping, with directions that the time was to be agreeably passed in the interesting occupations of shot drill and oakum picking.

ABOUT 7 a.m., on the 12th instant, as that indefaligable officer Sergeant Campbell was doing a stroll along the praya, curiosity, or something else, took him on board the steam-launch 'Fie Yune which was lying alongside the wharf, laden with passengers, about thirty in number. Wishing, with that politeness inbred (?) in the men who wear the uniform of the Hongkong Police force, to pay his respects to the commander of the Fie Yune, Sergeant Campbell made enquiries for the captain who was not to be found. This was viz,-the steam guage indicating a pressure of gobs, of steam. With commendable desquiries of the engineer as to what his full driving power was, it was found that, when working at full speed, the indicator would denote 70lbs. some 20lbs. less than the indicator shewed when the launch was lying quietly along side the wharf, and the engines at rest. It makes one feel a trifle nervous to think of such things being possible, under our very noses. Had the poor wretches of passengers endowments. Income about 1000%, chiefly from poor Saxon, but unfortunately for his enthusiastic been blown to atoms, or kingdom come, there would have been endless enquiries as to the cause, and effect, of the catastrophe, and much valuable time would have been taken up in the investigation. THE remanded case in which an unemployed

seaman named George Cannon was charged with being drunk and begging, and being a rogue and vagabond, was on again this morning at the Police Court. This is the man whom Mr. H. W. Davis, of the firm of Linstead and Davis, had to send for a constable on the 5th inst. to arrest, as he refused to leave that gentleman's office, where he went to beg.-Inspector Fleming made enquiries about him at the U.S. Consulate, and was told he was on the books of the Consulate as having arrived by the American ship Twilight. on the 27th September last. He received his discharge on the 4th October, and the papers were then handed to him. The Inspector said discharge papers are never in any case kept at the Consulate.-On the 8th instant defendant said he was arrested on the 4th October for making a false report about the Bolton Abbey. The case was remanded till 5th October, and he was meanwhile detained in gaol. The ship was paid off on the 4th October without his knowledge, and he knew nothing of it until some days after he had been in gaol when one of his shipmates told him he had been paid off. He heard nothing more until the 12th December, when the Captain brought the money due to him, $7.75, to the gaol. The money was left with Mr. Hayward, who gave it to him when leaving the gaol. He asked the Captain if he had brought him his discharge, who replied in the negative, and told him he would get his discharge at the Consul's office when he left the gaol. He went to the Consulate after he came out of gaol and asked for his discharge. He saw the American Consul, who asked him what ship he belonged to. He answered the Twilight. The Consul told him he would not give him his discharge, and sent him away. After that he had to go to the Civil Hospital, where he was seven weeks, coming out on the 4th March. After he had been in hospital about a month he went to the Consul again and asked for his discharge. The Consul said "I must see the captain first." The ship was then in harbour. He went back to hospital, and since then had heard nothing more about it. When his wages were paid he raised an objection to a stoppage of $12 on account of cargo being discharged during his absence. As a matter of fact, foreign seamen are not employed in the discharge of cargo from American ships in Hongkong harbour, but only Chinese, and therefore he did not consider the stoppage a fair one. He spoke to the Harbour Master about it, but he said he could not do anything, as it was an American ship. Mr. Hayward and Inspector Staunton were present when he complained of the stoppage to the captain. He was at first going to refuse to sign the receipt for $7-50, really disappointing to Campbell, so he took a but the captain told him that if he did not look round the craft and found something which sign he could charge him another dollar, rather startled his by no means weak nerves, He therefore thought it better to sign. The rest of his account was all right. If consideration is shown to him now, he undertakes to get out of. patch the Sergeant cleared the craft of Hongkong in a week's time. The reason he the passengers, eased the safety valve, and made the false statement about the Bolton Abbey stood alone on the deck, like Casabianca's was because he wanted to get clear of the Trulson, waiting for something to turn up, which light, where he was shamefully treated, and was something soon appeared in the shape of the afraid of doing something desperate. The Captain had no part in it, and they had no complaint to make against him. The chief mate's name was George Henderson. A native paper says that Bin Sho Moku, a nephew of the Queen of Corea, who came to Japan last year and holds progressive opinions, has been urging upon his Government to open Corea to foreign intercourse, but that, owing to the obstinately conservative ideas still prevalent in the Soul Cabinet, he has been unsuccessful.

The Mainichi Shimbun says that the ironclad Adsuma Kan is now so old, her armour so impaired, and her hull itself so rotten, that to repair her would require an outlay of at least 100,000 yen; and that even then she could not last many years. It has therefore been decided to make only the repairs imperatively necessary, and to convert her into a floating fort.

We are informed that shortly after the arrival of the S. S. Sunda from Hongkong, the customs officials, whose suspicions had been aroused, stopped some of the dirty linen landed by the washermen from the vessel in the usual routine, and discovered that it had been made the cloak for smuggling opium. The indiscretion of some one or other led to the prime mover getting wind of this: or if not the prime mover, at any rate one of the saloon boys who had been several years in the company's employ has deserted, and his whereabouts is not yet ascertained. He may be now some miles on his way back to the Flowery Land rejoicing in his own immunity and the success of past ventures, as boldly and more successfully effected.

A priest of the Hongwanji has been killed and a member of the Okuraguini seriously injured. Great excitement prevails in the settlement, but matters are not so serious as to cause a rupture between Japan and Corea. The Maintchi Shimbus notes that no date is given as to when the riot occurred, but that it must evidently have been before the 17th instant, on which day the Tsuruga Maru left. -- Mail.
